All exams will be written in regular subject classes unless otherwise arranged by the subject teacher. In case of school cancelation during the examination period, all examinations will move ahead one day. For example, should school be canceled on Thursday, the exams scheduled for that day would be held on Friday.

In case of school cancelation during the NOON HOUR, the exam scheduled for that afternoon (For example, Thursday afternoon) will be written the following morning (Friday morning). No other exams will be written that day (Friday). The exams normally scheduled for that day (Friday) will be written the following day (Monday).
