How do You Make Safety a Habit?

The Cape Breton NAOSH (North American Occupational Safety and Health) Committee would like to know how you make safety a habit. Please take some time to create a video showing how you make safety a part of your everyday lifestyle.

Contest Details:

- Students in grades 7-12 are eligible to participate.
- The attached entry form must be filled out and submitted with the video.
- Videos can be submitted by an individual or as a group.
- Videos can be up to 5 minutes in length and maximum of 10 MB.
- Submissions may be shared with others.
- Prizes will be awarded during NAOSH Week (May 3-9, 2015).
- Please send your submissions by March 30, 2015 to cbrushett@lynkgroup.ca or drop off at Lynk Group, 110 Reeves Street, Sydney or mail to P.O. Box 1174, Sydney, NS, B1P 6J9.

North American Occupational Safety and Health Week was first launched in June 1997, marked by an agreement between Canada, the United States and Mexico that highlights to the public, government and industry the importance of increasing understanding, raising awareness and preventing injuries and illness in the workplace, at home, and in the community.
